

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

I am writing this letter in support of Mr. [REDACTED], who is a student of "Electronics and Communication Engineering" at our college. In my capacity as a senior lecturer of the department, I have known him for the past four years and have found him to be an aspiring and sincere student. He is ranked within the top 10% in his department of 117 and has handled the courses of "Electronic measurements and Instrumentation", "Embedded and Real Time Systems". He has done exceedingly well by topping the department with an excellent score of 98% in Electronic circuits. This proves that he is strong in his fundamentals.

He has an inquisitive mind and good interpretation abilities that will greatly facilitate research work at your university. An intelligent and hardworking student, [REDACTED] has a natural inclination for research. This inclination stems from his curious bent of mind and a nature for questioning. He has the ability to voice his ideas clearly, which greatly enhances his expressiveness in solving doubts when approached by fellow students. His extreme interest, persistent attitude and intellectual curiosity drive him to get deeply involved in his work and excel in it.

At a personal level, Prashanth is a well-disciplined, industrious student with a pleasant personality. He is unstinting in his efforts to keep abreast with the latest technologies, indefatigable in showing the applications of theory to practice in the Laboratory. Besides academics, Prashanth, as a member of the association for communication engineers in this college, takes part enthusiastically in various co-curricular activities of the department. He played a major role in organizing 'Techno-vilos', a national level technical symposium conducted by the Department.

In my unbiased opinion, he has a rich blend of creativity, temperament and discipline required for a person who desires a career in communication engineering. I strongly recommend him to the Graduate program in your esteemed university with full assistantship.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
