To whom it may concern

I am contented to endorse this letter of recommendation in favor of Mr. Pavleen Singh Bali who wishes to pursue higher studies at your institute. I know him as an undergraduate student from past three years, and taught him “Digital Image Processing”, in 8th semester. I also took his practical sessions of “Digital Image Processing”. He had been an optimal scorer in all the subjects.

Being an Electronics and Communication Engineering student, he is highly motivated, keen for knowledge and is always on the lookout to learn something innovative. His learning interests are revealed by his involvement in latest technologies. He is a hard task master and a team leader. He participated in numerous events in technical fests, and has always stood pre-eminently in ideas, concepts and technical knacks. Perseverance, sincerity and thirst for knowledge have always been the hallmark of Pavleen’s personality. As a student, he was dedicated to the assignments given to him and completed them on time.

Mr. Pavleen has the capability to complete assigned tasks with minimum guidance that makes him intellectually independent. He is good both in oral and written communication. He has capability to put across ideas very clearly. He is a team player and has emerged as a leader with his sincerity and stringent work. Moreover, his ingenuity and extra-ordinary work has led him to proliferate as an individual. Pavleen has published several research articles in various international journals. In addition, his diligence and pragmatic analysis represent his competency towards explorations. He has also taken seminars and presentations in the college. Proficiency in English coupled with in-depth knowledge of the subject made his seminars interesting and informative. Looking at his personality in a holistic way, I would rate Pavleen in the top 5% students of his class. Pavleen is quite popular among other students and have endeared him equally well to the faculty. I believe this has been a direct result of his strong communication skills and admirable leadership qualities. Besides academics, he also represented the college in various inter college competitions. He founded the Social Care a non-profit society of the university dedicated for social help and awareness among the people.

Hence, I strongly recommend him to be considered as a potential candidate for admission to the master’s program in your esteemed university. I believe he can meet the high standards set by your institute. I whole heartedly recommend him and wish him the very best in all future endeavors.

With regards,

JB PATEL
